

Unknown Coast Weekend

100 MILES IN TWO DAYS

September
18 & 19, 2010

WHAT A GREAT RIDE THIS IS. WE CARRY ALL OF YOUR STUFF AND YOU GET TO CRUISE ON SOME OF THE quietest and most scenic roads in the state. You will be riding through the lush, green Eel River Valley -- meandering roads that weave their way through groves of majestic redwoods trees, then a ride along the beaches of Cape Mendocino; and finally, along the crest of Rainbow Ridge, which has some of the best views anywhere.

A small word of warning. The climbs on this ride are challenging and there is no sag support. To enjoy this ride to it's fullest, you should be in decent physical condition and self sufficient.

Start/Finish

Begins at the Humboldt County Fairgrounds in Ferndale (about 20 miles south of Eureka). For those arriving Friday night, there is camping and showers available at the Fairgrounds for a fee of $5/per tent (you pay the fairgrounds.) Please do NOT camp ON the soccer field -- but adjacent to it. The luggage van departs Ferndale at 10 a.m.

The Course

Saturday's 65 miles explores the Eel River Valley, then through the Avenue of the Giants, turning west into the Rockefeller Redwoods and the big climb up over Panther Gap (2,744'). From there it is down to Honeydew where eight miles of rollers brings you to the A.W. Way County Park campground on the Mattole River.

The campground is adjacent to the Mattole Valley Grange Hall where dinner will be served Saturday night.

Sunday's breakfast will be available from the folks at the Grange Hall for $5.00 (paid to the cashier Sunday morning) and they have ham, eggs, pancakes, apple-sauce, coffee, tea or cocoa.

Sunday's ride of 35 miles goes through Petrolia, down to the beach and up the legendary wall (22% grade) of Cape Mendocino. Once over the top, you drop down to Capetown, then up, up, up the Shadow of the Wall to Malfunction Junction. From here it is a descent into Ferndale and the fairgrounds where your belongings will be returned.
