Saturday & Sunday September 17-18, 2016

UNKNOWN COAST WEEKEND

What a great ride this is - we carry all of your stuff and you get to cruise on some of the quietest and most scenic roads in the state. You will start riding through the lush, green Eel River Valley on meandering roads that weave their way through groves of majestic redwoods trees, then you'll ride along the beaches of Cape Mendocino; and finally, along the crest of Rainbow Ridge, which has some of the best views anywhere. Registration includes optional camping at the Fairgrounds on Friday night, luggage transportation, detailed route map, overnight accommodations at the Mattole Camp & Retreat Center, rest stops, post-ride snacks, dinner, breakfast and SAG support... and plenty of fun!

Accommodations at the Mattole Camp & Retreat Center include an indoor or outdoor option - the spots for tent camping on the spacious grounds are virtually unlimited, or choose one of their cabins with bunk beds (may be shared, limited to 60). Plenty of post-ride snacks & goodies will be on hand when you arrive and dinner will be served by the Chico Velo crew at the Tan Oak Lodge at the Retreat Center. Sunday's breakfast will be provided by the folks at the Mattole Grange Hall (right down the street from the Retreat Center) - locally sourced ham and eggs, pancakes, applesauce, coffee, tea, or cocoa.

COURSE

Saturday's 65 miles explores the Eel River Valley, then heads through the Avenue of the Giants, turning west into the Rockefeller Redwoods, where we'll have a water stop before the big climb up Panther Gap (2,744'). From there, it is all down to Honeydew where eight miles of rollers brings you to the Mattole Camp & Retreat Center on the Mattole River.

Sunday's ride of 35 miles goes through Petrolia, down the beach and up the legendary Wall (up to a 22% grade) of Cape Mendocino where we'll have a water stop. Once over the top, you drop down to Capetown, then up, up, up the Shadow of the Wall to Malfunction Junction. From there, you'll descend into Ferndale and the Fairgrounds where your belongings will be waiting for you with one of our SAG drivers.

Detailed route map, elevation profile and more available online at www.chicovelo.org!

A WORD OF WARNING!

The climbs on this ride are challenging and there will be limited SAG support. The Wall is purported to be an average of 18% for 1.25 miles. Ouch! To enjoy this ride to its fullest, you should be in decent physical condition and self-sufficient. A triple or compact won't hurt either.

START/FINISH

The ride begins and ends at the Humboldt County Fairgrounds in Ferndale (about 20 miles south of Eureka). For those arriving Friday night, camping and showers are available at the Fairgrounds.
